Important Information

This form is for use by a property owner or an owner's designated agent to file a protest with the appraisal review board (ARB) pursuant to Tax Code Section 41.41. Lessees contractually obligated to reimburse a property owner for property taxes may be entitled to protest as a lessee if all Tax Code requirements are met, including those in Tax Code Section 41.413.

VIDEOCONFERENCES

Videoconference hearings are not available in counties with a population of less than 100,000 that lack the technological capabilities to conduct a videoconference. (Tax Code Section 41.45(b-4))

SINGLE-MEMBER PANELS

An ARB must provide a single-member panel hearing if requested in the Notice of Protest or submitted in writing to the ARB not later than the 10th day before the date of the hearing. (Tax Code Section 41.45(b-4))

FILING INSTRUCTIONS

This form and all supporting documentation must be filed with the appraisal district office in each county in which the property is located. Do not file this document with the Texas Comptroller of Public Accounts. Contact information for appraisal district offices may be found on the Comptroller's website.

DEADLINES

With exceptions, the typical deadline for filing a notice of protest is midnight, May 15. (Tax Code Section 41.44) Contact the ARB for the county in which the property is located for the specific protest filing deadline.

NOTICE

The Comptroller's office may not advise a property owner, a property owner's agent, the chief appraiser or any appraisal district employee on a matter that the Comptroller's office knows is the subject of a protest to the ARB. Consult Tax Code Chapter 41 or the ARB hearing procedures for more information.
