SCOPE OF WORK

The Palo Pinto Appraisal District (PPAD) is a political subdivision of the State Of Texas created to be effective January 1, 1980. The Texas Property Tax Code governs the legal, statutory and administrative requirements of all the appraisal districts in the State of Texas. The governing body of PPAD is a board of directors. The board of directors is appointed by the elected governing boards of the taxing entities that have property within the boundaries of Palo Pinto County. The chief appraiser is the chief executive director and the chief administrator of PPAD. The chief appraiser is appointed by the board of directors.

For 2022 Palo Pinto Appraisal District (PPAD) appraised all taxable property on approximately 41,597 parcels. PPAD also is the office that grants or denies exemptions (Homesteads, Religious Exemptions etc.) and grants or denies special appraisals (1-d-1 or wildlife). The PPAD staff is very knowledgeable and will be very helpful in assisting with helping with any exemption or special appraisal. There are 20 entities in Palo Pinto County for which PPAD determines values for ad valorem taxes. This includes school districts, county, cities, and hospital and water districts. Ad Valorem taxes are what funds public services. The appraisal process is designed to establish a tax base and ensure that the tax burden is distributed equally according to the market value of properties. Each taxing jurisdiction sets their own tax rate to generate revenue to pay for the operations of its entity.

Citizens do have a voice in the ad valorem process. Voters elect the officials who set the tax rates, and establish the taxing entity budgets. There are various public meeting that occur during the ad valorem tax process.

PPAD currently has 14 employees. The chief executive officer of the appraisal district is the Chief Appraiser. The Deputy Chief Appraiser appraises properties and assists the Chief Appraiser in all operations of the appraisal district. 4 Real Estate appraisers and 1 appraiser for income producing Personal Property. PPAD also has a Receptionist, an Exemption Specialist, a GIS Mapping Coordinator, a Data Entry/ ARB Recording Secretary, a Deed Department and an ARB Coordinator.

The 2022 the total market value in PPAD grew to $8,618,992,015 from $6,216,144,636 in 2021. However due to exemptions and special appraisals the taxable value for 2022 is $4,775,418,844 from 2021 taxable of $3,711,305,6143. As of 2022 Certification PPAD still had $276,050,568 of market value on the supplemental and protested roll.

Per the Texas Property Tax Code, the market value of all taxable property shall be determined by the application of generally accepted appraisal methods and techniques. PPAD appraises property using mass appraisal standards. Per the Texas Property Tax Code: “all taxable property is to be appraised at its market value as of January 1 of each year.... All properties are to be appraised equally and uniformly.” The Tax Code also requires each appraisal district to implement a plan for reappraisal of all properties within its boundaries. The Tax Code directs that all real estate must be reappraised at least once every three years. For 2022 PPAD is in a three-year reappraisal cycle. Each year one third 1/3 of the county properties are reappraised. However, each year all real estate properties are analyzed and adjusted as needed to keep values at an equal and market value. Income producing personal property is appraised every year. The actual appraisal inspection of properties is normally conducted August through March each year.

APPEALS

Notices of Appraised Values were mailed April 18, 2022. Notices were mailed to property owners whose value increased $1,000 or more, new property owner, any account that requested a notice, properties that lost or were granted an exemption or special appraisal and to owners that rendered their property and to all properties that are located in an area that was reappraised.

If property owners do not agree with their value or a determination on an exemption or special appraisal, they have 30 days from the date that this notice was mailed to send their protest to PPAD. Of course within this 30 day time from, property owners can call or come to the PPAD office Monday through Friday from 8:00 AM to 4:30 PM to visit with the appraiser for your area.

Once protests are received, the ARB Coordinator schedules all protests for a hearing with the Appraisal Review Board (ARB). At these ARB hearings, property owners or agents will have to opportunity to explain and provide documentation to the ARB on why they do not agree with their Notice of Appraised Value. The Palo Pinto Appraisal District will also have representation at this hearing and will also have the chance to provide documentation to the ARB as to how they determined the values on the Notice of Appraised Value. Once the ARB hears all the evidence from the property owner and from the appraisal district, the ARB makes a determination on the protest. This all occurs in one hearing that is conducted in the board room of the Palo Pinto Appraisal District. The ARB is an informal board of citizens that are appointed by the Board of Directors of the appraisal district. The Board of Directors of the appraisal district is nominated and elected to position by the taxing entities in the county. The ARB is a separate entity from the appraisal district. However, the ARB does use appraisal district staff to receive the protests, schedule the hearings and the send notifications to property owners after the hearings are completed.

DISTRIBUTION OF TAX BURDEN

For Palo Pinto Appraisal District approximately 96% of the market value is real estate and personal property appraised in house. Industrial, minerals, utilities and other personal property are approximately 4% of the total market value.
