

Disclaimer

2024 Values are preliminary and subject to change.

All information contained herein, is considered in the public domain, and is distributed without warranty of any kind, implied, expressed, or statutory. The Sabine County Appraisal District makes no claims, promises, or guarantees about the accuracy, completeness, or adequacy of this information and expressly disclaims liability for any errors and omissions.

Information relating to current year data should be considered a “work in progress.” Prior year data is informational only and does not necessarily replicate the values certified to the tax office.